READ AND JUDGE.

We have published a speech of Thad. Stevens on the radical republican side; one of Senato Cowan, on the conservative republican side; all the messages and speeches of President Johnson, also Senator Trumbull's vetoed : freedmen's bureau bill, and we ask republicans and democrats to read them and judge for themselves how they ought to set to best aid in restoring the Union. Neither of the republican papers in this county have published these documents. Com ment is unnecessary.

THE BADICAL TRAITORS IN DAVEN-PORT.

THE FANATICS RUN MAD.

THE NEGROES ADVISED TO INAUGUR-ATE ANOTHER CIVIL WAR.

The president of the United States has publicly denounced Phillips, Stevens, Sumner and their set of fanatics as traitors .-Those people who follow that set of traitors and repudiate the president of their own election, held a meeting in Davenport, Monday evening, to denounce President Johnson and sustain the radical traitors and revolutionists at Washington. John E. Henry presided .-Alderman H. H. Andressen, was secretary. Mesers H. R. Claussen, J. W. Thompson, J. P. Stibolt, J. T. Lane and Ed. Russell, editor of the Gazette and turned-out post master, were committee on resolutions. The resolutions were of the usual stamp against"the government" and in favor of the radical traitors.

Among the speakers was Judge John F. Dillon, son-in-law of King Hiram, the radical congressman, and he, in his speech, said "that congress ought not to consent to a representation from the southern states, until it had permanently secured for the negroes the full and equal right of suffrage; and that if the negroes failed to obtain this right of sutfrage, by law, they would be justified in securing it at the point of the bayonet."

It is thus that thet . crazy fanatics and traitors seek to inaugurate a new civil war. Let the people mark the radicals who would again drench the land in blood.

Gov. Dennison, the post master general, made a speech in New York, at the same meeting with Mr. Seward, in favor of President Johnson and his policy.

When President Johnson was pitching into the southern rebels, it was all right-perfeetly delightful! But now, when he has "swung around the circle of the Union," and threatens to maul a few northern disturbers of the public peace, its "demnition ugly," as Bill Arp says; "then it were sik semper, but now it are sik transit."

What now say those preachers who, when President Lincoln was atrociously assassinated, declared the event was a visitation of God, holding that the Almighty was displeased with the conservative tendencies of Mr. Lincoln, and ordered his removal that An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to er-Andy Johnson might take hold and run the government in the incerests of radicalism?

THE HABEAS CORPUS CASE .- E. M. Davis, conductor, and Geo. Sollace, engineer, on the extra freight train which ran into the Port Byron train near the Junction, on the 14th inst., causing the death of Edmund Cahill, and Patrick Murray, were yesterday taken from the county jail on a of habeas corpus was suspended on the first day of writ of habeas corpus and brought before Hon. February, 1866, containing such refugees and reed Ira O. Wilkinson, for a hearing. The examina-tion resulted in the discharge of Geo. Sollace and the holding of E. M. Davis, for trial. ## Murder in Geneseo.

GENESEO, Feb. 23d 1866. EDITOR ARGUS, Sir .- A horrible murder was committed here last evening about 6 o'clock.— The circumstances were about as follows: Richard Williams, a house painter, had some difficulty with his step-son, Martin Snyder, a young man about 23 or 24 years of age. The old man obtained a shot gun and watched at a saloon for his victim, who, although notified of the fact, did not seem to take the advice given hin, but stepped into the saloon where the old man was. Williams shot him while he was opening the door. Thirty one shot went through his neck and a large number through his chin, making a terrible wound and breaking his lower jaw ocm-pletely. He died at about 3 o'clock, 3 hours after the deed was committed. Great excitement prevails here. The murderer has just been taken to Cambridge.

However it may be elsewhere, it is true that in Chicago a very large portion of the republican party sustain the president in his antagonism to his radical assailants. The blatant partisans are against him, but the quiet, thinking masses give him their sympathies now and will give him their support hereafter. The president need have no apprehension about the disposition of the masses of the people. - Chicago Times.

Ward Beecher Indorses the President.

Henry Ward Beecher delivered a lecture in Brooklyn, a few evenings since, in which he showed up the untairness and misrepresentations of Wendell Phillips; denounced the radical attempts at centralisation of power; declared the south was entitled to equality and fraternity, &c., &c. In the course of his remarks he said :

I think the most extraordinary thing of the present time is this—congress putting a bilt, full or additional powers, in the president's hands, making him stronger than any crowned monarch this side of Russia, and the president saying: "No, I cannot give my consent to a bill that makes me so strong." I am greatly mistaken in my judgement of men if, since the earliest and best days of our presidency, there has been a man there who was more honest, more single minded, and who. without bias of party, and without bias of of the country—of the whole country. (Loud al shall be based upon a valuation of the land, to and long-continued applause, mingled with a be ascertained in such manner as the commission-few hisses.) I hold that it would be a bad sign, however, if he should pass without criticism, or his papers without review. It is dangerous to have any man who is not amenable to the judgement of the whole country, and president Johnson as much as any man, and more because he is in a place of more importance than any other, but while you use your citizens' liberty of speech and of judgement, do not forget that you have an able statesman and an honest man in the chair of the chief magistrate. (Applause.) chair of the chief magistrate. (Applause.)

REPORT OF THE ROCK ISLAND CO. BIBLE SOCIETY FOR 1865.

The 21st annual meeting of this society was held in Rock Island, Jan 28th. A pub lic discourse was preached by Rev. James Caldwell, and an address was delivered by the county agent, Rev. M. N. Miles. The following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: Rev. S. T. Wilson, President. Rev. Henry Wallace, Vice President. E. W. Spencer, Secretary.

Edwin H. Smyth, Treasurer. A. K. Philleo, Hugh Warnock, David Hawes, C. L. Bascom, L. B. Requa and adge J W. Drury, Directors.

This county has been so often canvassed that but few tamilies are now found destitute of the scriptures. Only about half a dozen were brought to light by the present canvase Still, if a more thorough visitation were made, doubtless this number would be considerably increased.

The district agents have failed in many cases to visit, and the darkest and most destitute neighborhoods are most likely to be neglected. Resolutions have been widely adopted earnestly requesting ministers during the next three months to preach a public discourse, according to the recommendation of the committee in New York, not only to their stated congregations, but in those neglected districts where little is known of the great things God is doing for the world thro' the bible.

On the whole, the bible cause may be said to have effected a lodgment in the hearts of christian people in this county. And though light crops and heavy taxes cause a falling off in the donations during the past year, still the great cause is warmly and widely cherished. And good men must rally around an enterprise which has set in motion every wheel in the glorious machinery of benevol ence, and which has been proved equal to the mighty work of raising man and society in every age from the lowest abyse of ignorance, idolatry and woe, to the exalted plane of high civilization and a pure religion.

M. N. Miles, County Agent. While congress squabbles politically the loan bill awaits action—the bankrupt bill has been hung up in a dilapidated condition for a few to days—and as for the great queston of revenue, why, it is not heard of.

A few days ago a negro man was arraigned in Portsmouth, Va., and arranged before the mayor, charged with selling liquor without a license, and upon examination was found guilty. He was taken in charge, however, by an officer of the institution yelept the "Freedmen's Bureau," and fined three dollars for an offence which would have cost white man forty! The mayor now thinks it unnecessary trouble to meddle with colored rascale, and they are permitted to do pretty States. much as they please.

Senator Wade assailed President Lincoln as severely as he has President Johnson. He accused Mr. Lincoln of holding electoral votes at his dictation to gratify personal ambition; told him he must leave political reorganization to congress if he wanted its support, and charged him with inaugurating civil war for the presidency. The N. Y. Tribune was as fierce against Lincoln's nomination in the first instance and against his re-election, as it is now elamor ous against Mr. Johnson. But Mr. Lincoin survived the denunciations of both, and Mr. Johnson, at this day will, hardly be annihilated by the wrath of radical senators or editors.

Help for the Suffering.

At a meeting, of the citizens, of Rock Island held in the court house, on Monday evening to hear statements from Rev. J. H. Leard, in regard to the destitution and suffering, among the people of Western Arkansas, the undersigned re appointee a committee, to solicit and receive contributions for the relief of those destitute persons, and we take this method of appealing, to the humanity of the citizens of Rock Island county, to respond promptly to the cry of distress, which reaches us from those (prince pally widows and orphans) who are perishing with hunger from no fault of their own, and almost within our sight. We are satisfied that these people have a legitimate claim, on our sympathy, and that in the spirit of the Good Samaritan, we may safely give them a little of the abundance which a good Providence has bestowed upon us.

Contributions, may be handed to either of the committee, and it is hoped that it will be done at once.
